EFsac Library Disclaimer

The EFsac library provides books/media as a service to the students and parents of the school. Unauthorized attempts to modify these items are prohibited. Content in the books/media provided may contain references that may be seen as offensive, and should not be considered as an endorsement of or recommendation by EFsac. EFsac recommends that parents check out books/media based on the age recommendations provided, and preview the material themselves before their children. EFsac makes no guarantees as to the accuracy of age recommendations, and assumes no liability or responsibility for any errors or omissions in the content. Library check out cards must be filled out to ensure proper tracking of books/media, and once item is checked out, the responsibility of the item lies with the borrower.

I have read the above information and understand that it is my responsibility as a student to both care for and return my textbooks at the end of the academic year. I also understand these items are very expensive and that if not returned in good condition that I will be billed for reimbursement based upon the information shown above
